

Drawing your baby

When: Online on Monday the 8th of March 2021, from 19:00 pm to 21:15 pm

This class is aimed at parents who have experienced baby loss. It does not matter whether your loss is recent or many years ago. The online class will last for just over two hours and will be led by international artist Adinda van 't Klooster who herself had a stillbirth in 2010. After a brief introduction Adinda will give a slideshow with artworks about pregnancy loss and stillbirth.

The group will then move on to drawing from photographs. This is your chance to show your baby as you remember them, which may be different from how they look on the photograph, and bring home a memento for you to cherish.

Please bring a photograph or a scan of your baby. If you do not have a photograph or would prefer not to use this, please bring something you remember your baby by.

No previous experience with drawing is required and the class is free to attend. You will need to bring a pencil (including ideally a soft pencil of about B3), a rubber and paper. If you wish to participate, please confirm your attendance by emailing Adinda van 't Klooster on: stillbornproject@gmail.com by the 2nd of March. A link to the online workshop will be sent closer to the time. Please note the workshop is filled on a first come, first serve basis, so to ensure your place be quick in responding.

This free event is supported by the Arts Council England

Elvira, © Adinda van 't Klooster, 2010

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND